If we don't feel desires for God, it's not because we've drunk deeply and are satisfied. It's because we've nibbled so long at the table of the world. <https://www.amazon.de/dp/B000APC88C>...

Our appetites dictate the direction of our lives—whether it be the cravings of our stomachs, the passionate desire for possessions or power, or the longings of our spirits for God.

John Piper invites readers to turn from the dulling effects of food and other appetites to the all-satisfying glory of God through fasting and prayer.

For when God is the supreme hunger of your heart, He will be supreme in everything. And when you are most satisfied in Him, He will be most glorified in you. And when you are most satisfied in Him, He will be most glorified in you.
