THE EIGHTY-DOLLAR CHAMPION begins much like Snowman's career --- slowly. In addition to introducing readers to Harry de Leyer, a 22-year-old from Holland who immigrated to America in 1950 with his wife, Joanna, and $160 in his pocket, Letts sets the scene for what was going on in the country at the time.

But this eighty-dollar gelding, this shaggy-coated, children-loving animal had hidden his gifts under the plainest, most humble exterior. He was the horse Harry de Leyer had dreamed of — the horse with the makings of a champion. Only two years after his rescue, Snowman won the 1958 horse show Triple Crown — the American Horse Shows Association Horse of the Year, Professional Horseman's ...
