I was very touched by this endearing little story about Gabby and Sophie and the Stick to it Day. The illustrations depict the authors writing without any doubt as to what the story is about. Even if a child just looks at the pictures they will be able to tell what Gabby and Sophie are up to. Of course you must read the book with to the child so they will get the full picture. I am sure your child with be delighted with this book.

This story fits the bill for the younger crowd. What amazed me is how D started hanging close by to listen as I read to J. I suppose he felt drawn to the story and just had to check it out.
