I especially loved the parts about the history of Maybelline and the heart that was put into the products. This is the story of hard work, how family can help you, hurt you, or both. I loved the photos and the website Sherrie has. But, don't just rely on the site...there is a BIG story told here...you won't be sorry.

There were so many interesting stories about the Maybelline Family that I didn't know about until now. This is truly a fascinating story that everyone will enjoy. This is truly a fascinating story that everyone will enjoy.
